

STATIONS OF THE CROSS

SAINT JOHN'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH
MOBILE, ALABAMA

About the Stations of the Cross

The devotion known as the Stations of the Cross, sometimes known as the Way of the Cross, is an adaptation to local usage of a custom widely observed by pilgrims to Jerusalem: the offering of prayer at a series of places in that city traditionally associated with our Lord's passion and death.

The number of stations, which at first varied widely, finally became fixed at fourteen. Of these, eight are based directly on events recorded in the Gospels. This form is taken from The Book of Occasional Services 2003 of the Episcopal Church.

THE STATIONS OF THE CROSS

Hymn

The People stands and sings the following hymn during the entrance of the ministers. The tune is Stabat Mater dolorosa.

1. At the cross her sta - tion keep - ing,
2. For her soul of joy be - reav - ed,
Stood the mourn - ful Moth - er weep - ing,
Bowed with an - guish, deep - ly griev - ed,
Where he hung, the dy - ing Lord.
Felt the sharp and pierc - ing sword.

Opening Devotions

The Officiant says

✠ In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

People     Amen.

Officiant    Lord, have mercy.

People        Christ, have mercy.

Officiant    Lord, have mercy.

Officiant    Our Father,

People        who art in heaven,
                  hallowed be thy Name,
                  thy kingdom come,
                  thy will be done,
                  on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

Officiant    We will glory in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ:

People        In whom is our salvation, our life and resurrection.

Officiant    Let us pray.

Assist us mercifully with your help, O Lord God of our salvation, that we may enter with joy upon the contemplation of those mighty acts, whereby you have given us life and immortality; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen

Hymn

As the procession goes to the First Station, the People follow, singing the hymn.

3. O how sad and sore di - stre - ssed
4. Deep the woe of her af - flic - tion,
Now was she, that Mo - ther ble - ssed
When she saw the cru - ci - fi - xion
Of the sole - be - got - ten One.
Of her e - ver glo - rious Son.

First Station: Jesus is condemned to death

The People and the Officiant reverence the station. The Officiant says

We adore you, O Christ, and we bless you:

People Because by your holy cross you have redeemed the world.

The Officiant says

As soon as it was morning, the chief priests, with the elders and scribes, and the whole council, held a consultation; and they bound Jesus and led him away and delivered him to Pilate. And they all condemned him and said, "He deserves to die." When Pilate heard these words, he brought Jesus out and sat down on the judgment seat at a place called the Pavement, but in the Hebrew, Gabbatha. Then he handed Jesus over to them to be crucified.

Officiant God did not spare his own Son:

People But delivered him up for us all.

Officiant Let us pray.

Almighty God, whose most dear Son went not up to joy but first he suffered pain, and entered not into glory before he was crucified: Mercifully grant that we walking in the way of the cross, may find it none other than the way of life and peace; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord.

Amen.

Hymn

As the procession moves to the Second Station, the People follow, singing the hymn.

Who, on Christ's dear Mo - ther ga - zing,
Pierced by an - guish so a - maz - ing
Born of wo - man, would not weep?

Second Station: Jesus takes up his Cross

The People and the Officiant reverence the station. The Officiant says

We adore you, O Christ, and we bless you:

People Because by your holy cross you have redeemed the world.

The Officiant says

Jesus went out, bearing his own cross, to the place called the place of a skull, which is called in Hebrew, Golgotha. Although he was a Son, he learned obedience through what he suffered. Like a lamb he was led to the slaughter; and like a sheep that before its shearers is mute, so he opened not his mouth. Worthy is the Lamb who was slain, to receive power and riches and wisdom and strength and honor and glory and blessing.

Officiant The Lord has laid on him the iniquity of us all:

People For the transgression of my people was he stricken.

Officiant Let us pray.

Almighty God, whose beloved Son willingly endured the agony and shame of the cross for our redemption: Give us courage to take up our cross and follow him; who lives and reigns for ever and ever.

Amen.

Hymn

As the procession moves to the Third Station, the People follow, singing the hymn.

Who, on Christ's dear Mo - ther think - ing,
Such a cup of sor - row drink - ing,
Would not share her sor - rows deep?

Third Station: Jesus falls the first time

The People and the Officiant reverence the station. The Officiant says

We adore you, O Christ, and we bless you:

People Because by your holy cross you have redeemed the world.

The Officiant says

Christ Jesus, though he was in the form of God, did not count equality with God a thing to be grasped; but emptied himself, taking the form of a servant, and was born in human likeness. And being found in human form he humbled himself and became obedient unto death, even death on a cross. Therefore God has highly exalted him, and bestowed on him the name which is above every name. Come, let us bow down, and bend the knee, and kneel before the Lord our Maker, for he is the Lord our God.

Officiant Surely he has borne our griefs:

People And carried our sorrows.

Officiant Let us pray.

O God, you know us to be set in the midst of so many and great dangers, that by reason of the frailty of our nature we cannot always stand upright: Grant us such strength and protection as may support us in all dangers, and carry us through all temptations; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

Hymn

As the procession moves to the Fourth Station, the People follow, singing the hymn.

For his peo - ple's sins chas - tis - ed,
She be - held her Son de - spi - sed,
Scourged, and crowned With thorns en - twined.

Fourth Station: Jesus meets his afflicted mother

The People and the Officiant reverence the station. The Officiant says

We adore you, O Christ, and we bless you:

People Because by your holy cross you have redeemed the world.

The Officiant says

To what can I liken you, to what can I compare you, O daughter of Jerusalem? What likeness can I use to comfort you, O virgin daughter of Zion? For vast as the sea is your ruin. Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted. The Lord will be your everlasting light, and your days of mourning shall be ended.

Officiant A sword will pierce your own soul also:

People And fill your heart with bitter pain.

Officiant Let us pray.

O God, who willed that in the passion of your Son a sword of grief should pierce the soul of the Blessed Virgin Mary his mother: Mercifully grant that your Church, having shared with her in his passion, may be made worthy to share in the joys of his resurrection; who lives and reigns for ever and ever.

Amen.

Hymn

As the procession moves to the Fifth Station, the People follow, singing the hymn.

Saw him then from judg - ment ta - ken,
And in death by all for - sa - ken,
Till his spi - rit he re - signed.

Fifth Station: The Cross is laid on Simon of Cyrene

The People and the Officiant reverence the station. The Officiant says

We adore you, O Christ, and we bless you:

People Because by your holy cross you have redeemed the world.

The Officiant says

As they led Jesus away, they came upon a man of Cyrene, Simon by name, who was coming in from the country, and laid on him the cross to carry it behind Jesus. "If anyone would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow me. Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me; for my yoke is easy, and my burden is light."

Officiant Whoever does not bear his own cross and come after me:

People Cannot be my disciple.

Officiant Let us pray.

Heavenly Father, whose blessed Son came not to be served but to serve: Bless all who, following in his steps, give themselves to the service of others; that with wisdom, patience, and courage, they may minister in his Name to the suffering, the friendless, and the needy; for the love of him who laid down his life for us, your Son our Savior Jesus Christ.

Amen.

Hymn

As the procession moves to the Sixth Station, the People follow, singing the hymn.

Je - sus, may her deep de - vo - tion
Stir in me the same e - mo - tion,
Fount of love, Re - dee - mer kind.

Sixth Station: A woman wipes the face of Jesus

The People and the Officiant reverence the station. The Officiant says

We adore you, O Christ, and we bless you:

People Because by your holy cross you have redeemed the world.

The Officiant says

We have seen him without beauty or majesty, with no looks to attract our eyes. He was despised and rejected by men; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief; and as one from whom men hide their faces, he was despised, and we esteemed him not. His appearance was so marred, beyond human semblance, and his form beyond that of the children of men. But he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities; upon him was the chastisement that made us whole, and with his stripes we are healed.

Officiant Restore us, O Lord God of hosts:

People Show the light of your countenance, and we shall be saved.

Officiant Let us pray.

O God, who before the passion of your only-begotten Son revealed his glory upon the holy mountain: Grant to us that we, beholding by faith the light of his countenance, may be strengthened to bear our cross, and be changed into his likeness from glory to glory; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

Hymn

As the procession moves to the Seventh Station, the People follow, singing the hymn.

That my heart fresh ar - dor gain - ing,
And a pur - er love at - tain - ing,
May with thee ac - cept - ance find.

Seventh Station: Jesus falls a second time

The People and the Officiant reverence the station. The Officiant says

We adore you, O Christ, and we bless you:

People Because by your holy cross you have redeemed the world.

The Officiant says

Surely he has borne our griefs and carried our sorrows. All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the Lord has laid on him the iniquity of us all. He was oppressed, and he was afflicted, yet he opened not his mouth. For the transgression of my people was he stricken.

Officiant But as for me, I am a worm and no man:

People Scorned by all and despised by the people.

Officiant Let us pray.

Almighty and everliving God, in your tender love for the human race you sent your Son our Savior Jesus Christ to take upon him our nature, and to suffer death upon the cross, giving us the example of his great humility: Mercifully grant that we may walk in the way of his suffering, and also share in his resurrection; who lives and reigns for ever and ever.

Amen.

Hymn

As the procession moves to the Eighth Station, the People follow, singing the hymn.

1. True re - pent - ance, Je - sus, win me;
2. As thou bought'st, through tri - bu - la - tion,
Sav - ior, print thy wounds with - in me;
In the pas - sion, my sal - va - tion,
Brand them on my stub - born heart.
Let me bear there - in my part.

Eighth Station: Jesus meets the women of Jerusalem

The People and the Officiant reverence the station. The Officiant says

We adore you, O Christ, and we bless you:

People Because by your holy cross you have redeemed the world.

The People and the Officiant stand. The Officiant says

There followed after Jesus a great multitude of the people, and among them were women who bewailed and lamented him. But Jesus turning to them said, "Daughters of Jerusalem, do not weep for me, but weep for yourselves and for your children."

Officiant Those who sowed with tears:

People Will reap with songs of joy.

Officiant Let us pray.

Teach your Church, O Lord, to mourn the sins of which it is guilty, and to repent and forsake them; that, by your pardoning grace, the results of our iniquities may not be visited upon our children and our children's children; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

Hymn

As the procession moves to the Ninth Station, the People follow, singing the hymn.

Let me mourn, O Lord, be - side thee
For the sins which cru - ci - fied thee,
While my life re - mains in me.

Ninth Station: Jesus falls a third time

The People and the Officiant reverence the station. The Officiant says

We adore you, O Christ, and we bless you:

People Because by your holy cross you have redeemed the world.

The People and the Officiant stand. The Officiant says

I am the man who has seen affliction under the rod of his wrath; he has driven and brought me into darkness without any light. He has besieged me and enveloped me with bitterness and tribulation; he has made me dwell in darkness like the dead of long ago. Though I call and cry for help, he shuts out my prayer. He has made my teeth grind on gravel, and made me cower in ashes. "Remember, O Lord, my affliction and bitterness, the wormwood and the gall!"

Officiant He was led like a lamb to the slaughter:

People And like a sheep that before its shearers is mute, so he opened not his mouth.

Officiant Let us pray.

O God, by the passion of your blessed Son you made an instrument of shameful death to be for us the means of life: Grant us so to glory in the cross of Christ, that we may gladly suffer shame and loss for the sake of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ.

Amen.

Hymn

As the procession moves to the Tenth Station, the People follow, singing the hymn.

Take be - neath the cross my sta - tion,
And in all thy de - so - la - tion
So u - nite my - self with thee.

Tenth Station: Jesus is stripped of his garments

The People and the Officiant reverence the station. The Officiant says

We adore you, O Christ, and we bless you:

People Because by your holy cross you have redeemed the world.

The Officiant says

When they came to a place called Golgotha (which means the place of a skull), they offered him wine to drink, mingled with gall; but when he tasted it, he would not drink it. And they divided his garments among them by casting lots. This was to fulfill the scripture which says, "They divided my garments among them; they cast lots for my clothing."

Officiant They gave me gall to eat:

People And when I was thirsty they gave me vinegar to drink.

Officiant Let us pray.

Lord God, whose blessed Son our Savior gave his body to be whipped and his face to be spit upon: Give us grace to accept joyfully the sufferings of the present time, confident of the glory that shall be revealed; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

Hymn

As the procession moves to the Eleventh Station, the People follow, singing the hymn.

Je - sus, great be - yond all o - ther,
Turn not from me, heav'n - ly bro - ther,
Let me too be - wail thy pain.

Eleventh Station: Jesus is nailed to the Cross

The People and the Officiant reverence the station. The Officiant says

We adore you, O Christ, and we bless you:

People Because by your holy cross you have redeemed the world.

The Officiant says

When they came to the place which is called The Skull, there they crucified him; and with him they crucified two criminals, one on the right, the other on the left, and Jesus between them. And the scripture was fulfilled which says, "He was numbered with the transgressors."

Officiant They pierce my hands and my feet:

People They stare and gloat over me.

Officiant Let us pray.

Lord Jesus Christ, you stretched out your arms of love on the hard wood of the cross that everyone might come within the reach of your saving embrace: So clothe us in your Spirit that we, reaching forth our hands in love, may bring those who do not know you to the knowledge and love of you; for the honor of your Name.

Amen.

Hymn

As the procession moves to the Twelfth Station, the People follow, singing the hymn.

Let my soul, thy death de - clar - ing,
Thy un - spar - ing pas - sion shar - ing,
Count thy bruises one by one.

Twelfth Station: Jesus dies on the Cross

The People and the Officiant reverence the station. The Officiant says

We adore you, O Christ, and we bless you:

People Because by your holy cross you have redeemed the world.

The Officiant says

When Jesus saw his mother, and the disciple whom he loved standing near, he said to his mother, “Woman, behold your son!” Then he said to the disciple, “Behold your mother!” And when Jesus had received the vinegar, he said, “It is finished!” And then, crying with a loud voice, he said, “Father, into your hands I commend my spirit.” And he bowed his head, and handed over his spirit.

All kneel. Silence is kept. The People stands as the Officiant rises. The Officiant says

Christ for us became obedient unto death:

People Even death on a cross.

Officiant Let us pray.

O God, who for our redemption gave your only-begotten Son to the death of the cross, and by his glorious resurrection delivered us from the power of our enemy: Grant us so to die daily to sin, that we may evermore live with him in the joy of his resurrection; who lives and reigns now and for ever.

Amen.

Hymn

As the procession moves to the Thirteenth Station, the People follow, singing the hymn.

Let thy stripes and scourging smite me;
At thy holy cross requite me,
Let thy blood refresh me there.

Thirteenth Station: The body of Jesus is placed in the arms of his mother

The People and the Officiant reverence the station. The Officiant says

We adore you, O Christ, and we bless you:

People Because by your holy cross you have redeemed the world.

The Officiant says

All you who pass by, behold and see if there is any sorrow like my sorrow. My eyes are spent with weeping; my soul is in tumult; my heart is poured out in grief because of the downfall of my people. "Do not call me Naomi (which means Pleasant), call me Mara (which means Bitter); for the Almighty has dealt very bitterly with me."

Officiant Her tears run down her cheeks:

People And she has none to comfort her.

Officiant Let us pray.

Lord Jesus Christ, by your death you took away the sting of death: Grant to us your servants so to follow in faith where you have led the way, that we may at length fall asleep peacefully in you and wake up in your likeness; for your tender mercies' sake.

Amen.

Hymn

As the procession moves to the Fourteenth Station, the People follow, singing the hymn.

When the flames of hell would end me
At the judg - ment day, de - fend me,
Gen - tle Je - sus, by thy love.

Fourteenth Station: Jesus is laid in the tomb

The People and the Officiant reverence the station. The Officiant says

We adore you, O Christ, and we bless you:

People Because by your holy cross you have redeemed the world.

The Officiant says

When it was evening, there came a rich man from Arimathea, named Joseph, who also was a disciple of Jesus. He went to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus. Then Pilate ordered it to be given to him. And Joseph took the body, and wrapped it in a clean linen shroud, and laid it in his own new tomb, which he had hewn in the rock; and he rolled a great stone to the door of the tomb.

Officiant You will not abandon me to the grave:

People Nor let your holy One see corruption.

Officiant Let us pray.

O God, your blessed Son was laid in a tomb in a garden, and rested on the Sabbath day: Grant that we who have been buried with him in the waters of baptism may find our perfect rest in his eternal and glorious kingdom; where he lives and reigns for ever and ever.

Amen.

Hymn

As the procession moves to the Shrine of Our Lady, the People follow, singing the hymn.

1. Je - sus, may thy cross de - fend me,
2. When to dust my dust re - turn - eth,

And thy sav - ing death be - friend me,
Grant a soul that to thee yearn - eth

Cher - ished by thy death - less grace.
In thy par - a - dise a place. A - men.

At the Shrine of Our Lady

The Officiant says

Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee.
Blessed art thou among women and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus.

People

Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death. Amen.

Hymn: Cross of Jesus, cross of sorrow

As the ministers go to the center of the crossing, the People return to their seats while singing the hymn.

The image shows a musical score for a hymn. It consists of three systems of music, each with a vocal line (treble clef) and a bass line (bass clef). The key signature is one flat (B-flat major or D minor). The time signature is 4/4. The lyrics are arranged in four parts, with the first part having four numbered lines. The music is written in a simple, hymn-like style with block chords and moving lines.

Concluding Prayers before the Altar

The Ministers and the People remain standing facing the Altar. The Officiant says

People Savior of the world, by your cross and precious blood you have redeemed us:
Save us, and help us, we humbly beseech you, O Lord.

Officiant Let us pray.

We thank you, heavenly Father, that you have delivered us from the dominion of sin and death and brought us into the kingdom of your Son; and we pray that, as by his death he has recalled us to life, so by his love he may raise us to eternal joys; who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Amen.

To Christ our Lord who loves us, and washed us in his own blood, and made us a kingdom of priests to serve his God and Father, to him be glory and dominion for ever and ever.

Amen.
