

Happening FAQ for Teens

Why should I give up a weekend for this?

-Happening is 1 weekend out of 52 weekends that is dedicated just to you. Everyone at Happening is there to make sure you have a good time and grow closer to God. It's a weekend away from the stress of school, sports, or life in general.

Why do I want to go?

-To get involved in not only the life of your church but the life of the Diocese of the Central Gulf Coast. To meet new people who you may end up running into later in life.

Will I know anyone there?

-Maybe. One awesome thing about Happening is that you may not know someone but you will become so close with the people there it won't even matter. It's not about who you know going in but who you know coming out.

Will it be all "church" and no fun?

-The primary focus of Happening is "church" things but it in a very fun way

What is the focus?

-You

What should I wear?

-Clothes that you are comfortable in all day, Happening is a place for you to be yourself and feel accepted

What should I bring with me?

- air mattress
- sheets/sleeping bag
- clothes to sleep in
- clothes to wear Saturday and Saturday
- showering supplies and toiletries
- any musical instruments

We encourage you not to bring your cell phone but if you do there won't be time to use it.

What will I eat, or what if I have food restrictions?

The host church prepares all of the food for us out of love. Anyone with dietary restrictions will have plenty of options. (Church ladies make the best food so you will not go hungry!)

Will my talents be used or even accepted?

Of course! Whether it's being artistically creative, musically talented or the next best comedian, there's a lot ways to show off everyone's talents. This is a place to be your true self and not have the worry of feeling judged by your peers but rather accepted and encouraged.
